

ESG/Sustainability Consulting Intern

Location: New York, NY

Start date: Flexible, 3-month minimum with option to extend

S&C North America is a management consulting firm fully committed to sustainability & ESG. Together with our German parent company Schlange, Zamostny & Co., we support our clients with a variety of sustainability & ESG consulting services, including sustainability strategy, data management and reporting.

We have become a trusted partner for our clients through more than 500 projects across, the Americas, Europe and Asia. We work on behalf of public and private companies, as well as for industry associations, the public sector, non-governmental organizations, and charitable foundations.

We are looking for an Intern to join our small, tight-knit U.S. team based in New York.

What we offer:

- Opportunity to work on exciting management consulting projects in the area of ESG/sustainability
- Insights into sustainability activities of companies in various industries
- Steep learning curve
- Strong team environment
- Expense allowance

You will support a variety of ESG / sustainability consulting projects:

- Assist with ESG/sustainability strategy development and implementation
- Research and analyze supply chain transparency and risks
- Conduct comparative analyses of ESG/sustainability management approaches
- Support sustainability reporting
- Analyze data and draft presentations

Qualifications:

- An interest in ESG/sustainability and management consulting
- First-hand experience in ESG/sustainability
- Excellent academic performance
- Outstanding analytical skills and the ability to quickly grasp new information
- Detail-oriented, takes ownership, and constantly delivers high-quality work
- Excellent written and oral English communication skills

U.S. work authorization required.
S&C North America, Inc. is an E-Verify employer.

Contact: Please submit a cover letter, your resume, and a recent course transcript to Christopher Haasen (haasen@sandz-co.com)

We look forward to hearing from you!